Ref.No.MBAI/ PP/ 14 / 2025

Dated: 12.05.2025

To,
Election Commission MES BAI (2025-27)
807-808, Sahyog 58, Nehru Place New Delhi

Dear Sir,

1. It has given me immense pain to observe that two quasi autonomous bodies of the association with clear cut defined areas of responsibility are at serious loggerhead, to the extent that its growing potential may ultimately damage or derail the ongoing democratic electoral process.
2. Our MOA has clearly demarcated the parameter domain of both the bodies which does not encroach upon the working of each other. Please note that DRRC has been given a status of final and binding decision. Since last so many years both the institutions have a record of most conducive co-existence without any controversy.
3. Consequently, the issuance of any direction or order by the EC concerning restoration of membership constitutes a procedural impropriety and is a clear breach of the provisions of the MOA. This election circular was issued without any authority, not only contravenes the internal governance framework but also establishes a precedent of power overreach by the EC, thereby undermining the authority and sanctity of the duly elected Council. The following actions of the EC is beyond the MOA read with AOA and beyond the settled principles.

- EC has given various ruling/directives which are beyond their preview as defined in MOA Para 11 Page 19 of MOA. Further EC have overruled "the directions given by the "DRRC" which shall be final and binding on all parties". (Refer para 23 page 35 of MOA)
- Your election circular no. 35 dated 11 May 2025, declaring the letter of DRRC which you have mentioned. Has no bearing on your voting process. So, to contest/vote is ultra vires. EC is a body having power only limited to election only. EC cannot sit in the seat of "judge" and pass judgement on the decision/verdict given by the DRRC.
- EC should review their ruling given beyond their preview as well their directions which overruled the DRRC. EC should also respect the directions taken by the council in the council meetings of HQ MES BAI.

4. I sincerely expect that an immediate introspection will be made to rectify the recent actions as brought out in para 3 above. In view of the seriousness of the situation, I expect the institution to respect their area of responsibility and immediately refrain from creating any such ugly situation which may warrant convening a special council meeting to resolve the situation to avoid any damage to the ongoing electoral process.
5. A copy of this letter is being forwarded to DRRC MESBAI for their kind attention and for any necessary action, as may be deemed appropriate, to avoid further illegal activities.
