Dear Colleague

Off let it has been observed that a very small section of our builder's fraternity is trying hard to destabilize the ongoing election process of our association in various way to fulfil the vested interest of the individual, sometime even abusing their position in our association. The general members in deferent branches are getting confused because of this proactive role of certain members and sending various queries to Election Commission, Therefore, for the information of general members, one last time Election Commission are issuing following clarification which will stand as Election Commission's advisory to all stake holder till the end of the election is over and result of the same will be announced.

Advisory of Election Commission

Election Commission is all its diligence are organising the election of pan India branches with complete transparency and which will be over by the last day of June 2025. Thereafter the HQ election will be held on 25 July 2025 (Friday) as already been announced by our respected president, in the Bhopal Council Meeting. During this period The Election Commission are issuing deferent advisory to the fellow Election Chairmen of the branches as and when required, for the smooth conduct of the most free and fair election of the branches. The Election Commission are advising all the stake holder to kindly concentrate only and only to the election of your branch as per the guide line and advisory of the Election Commission.

It also may kindly be noted that any deviation of the guideline or the advisory may result any individual or the branch (as the case may be), to be out of the fray of election process.

Kindly note that Election Commission will not entertain any query or communique in this regard in the future.

With Regards

Yours Faithfully

(Praveen Mahana)
