Ref.: MESBAI/DRRC/08/2025

Date: 20th May 2025

Reply on Behalf of Hony. General Secretary, MES BAI

To,
The Chairman,
Dispute Redressal and Reconciliation Committee (DRRC),
MES Builders Association of India (MES BAI)
Ref: Your Letter No. MBI HQ/DRRC/2023-2025/71 Dated 19th May 2025

Subject: Response to Your Letter Dated 19.05.2025 and Clarification of Powers and Responsibilities of the Hony. General Secretary under the MOA and Societies Registration Act, 1860

Dear Sir,

This communication is issued with utmost respect towards the institution of DRRC, while placing on record a strong and unequivocal rebuttal to the misplaced observations, presumptive allegations, and legally untenable claims made in your aforementioned letter.

1. Authority of Hony. General Secretary under MOA and Societies Registration Act, 1860

The role, responsibilities, and communications of the Honorary General Secretary are well defined under Article 13(b) and other relevant provisions of the Memorandum of Association (MOA). The General Secretary is the principal executive officer of the Association, authorized to correspond on behalf of HQ, ensure compliance with constitutional processes, and issue advisories if there is any procedural deviation from the framework of the MOA or principles of natural justice.

Your claim that such correspondence is "personal opinion" is factually and legally incorrect. It was a formal advisory issued by the office of the Hon.

General Secretary in the interest of safeguarding democratic processes during the election period.

2. On Election Code and Transfer of Powers during Elections

Though the MOA may not explicitly label a term as "Election Code", the Supreme Court of India and various High Courts have repeatedly recognized the transfer of administrative authority to the Election Commission during election periods for ensuring free and fair elections — a principle embedded under Article 14 (Right to Equality) and the jurisprudence under Societies Registration Act, 1860 read with Election Law Principles.

HQ and its functionaries are legally bound to operate within limited routine correspondence only and refrain from convening meetings, issuing appointments, or making administrative decisions unless cleared by the Election Commission. The General Secretary has not introduced a new rule but merely reiterated this nationally and judicially recognised principle.

3. On the DRRC's Limitations During Election Period

DRRC is a statutory grievance redressal body primarily functioning as per Article 23 and the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. It does not have executive or electoral powers, especially during the Election period. Issuing instructions to HQ to call for meetings during elections is ultra vires and interferes with the constitutional autonomy of the Election Commission.

4. Violation of Hierarchical Communication and Overreach

It is alarming to note that DRRC has chosen to bypass the Election Commission, and directly attempted to override the Hony. General Secretary, which is in direct contravention of the hierarchy and functioning outlined under the MOA. The General Secretary has acted within the scope of his constitutional duties, whereas the DRRC appears to have overreached its mandate, which may invite legal scrutiny.

5. Defamation, Intimidation and Warning to a Constitutional Office Bearer

The tone and content of your letter is not only inappropriate and offensive but also border on contempt towards a constitutional office holder. The threat to "warn" the Hon. General Secretary for executing his responsibilities under the MOA is legally untenable and institutionally damaging. DRRC is neither a disciplinary body nor above HQ, and such posturing undermines the spirit of service that the Constitution of MES BAI demands.

6. Request for Immediate Rectification

We respectfully demand that you:

- Withdraw your letter No. 71 dated 19th May 2025 and remove any such document from the public domain that disrespects the authority of the Hon. General Secretary.
- Restrict DRRC to its designated role under the MOA and the Arbitration Act and avoid interfering in administrative or electoral matters.
- Refrain from issuing further threats or accusatory statements, failing which, appropriate legal remedies under defamation and intimidation laws shall be pursued.

Conclusion:

The Honorary General Secretary is not answerable to DRRC for discharging his constitutional duties, especially during the election period when HQ operates under the guidance of the Election Commission, in line with MOA and established democratic practice. The attempt to paint such actions as "unauthorised" reflects a misinterpretation of the law, overreach of DRRC powers, and possibly an intention to create confusion and undermine constitutional order.

We trust better counsel will prevail.
